

Understanding King James English

The words God chose when preserving His Word in English are not archaic; they're specific.

		Nominative	Objective	Possessive Adjective	Possessive Pronoun
1 st person	singular	I	me	my	mine
	plural	we	us	our	ours
2 nd person	singular	thou	thee	thy, thine	thine
	plural	ye	you	your	yours
3 rd person	singular	he, she, it	him, her, it	his, her, its	his, hers, its
	plural	they	them	their	theirs

Thou and Thee

“Thou” means you individually, as the subject of a sentence.

Gen 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

Gen 2:17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

“Thee” means you individually, as the object of a sentence.

Gen 3:11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

Ye and You

“Ye” means you plural, as the subject of a sentence.

Gen 3:3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

“You” means you plural, as the object of a sentence.

2Ti 4:22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Tit 3:15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Thy and Thine

“Thy” and “Thine” are both possessives that mean yours, when you is singular. “Thine” is always used as a possessive adjective before words beginning in vowels or the letter h, as a possessive pronoun after the verb be/is/are.

Rom 10:9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

Num 18:13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

Deu_6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

1. Exodus 4:15, "THOU shalt speak ... I will be with THY mouth...and will teach YOU what YE shall do."

"Thou/Thy" refer to Moses himself, but "You/Ye" refer to the entire nation of Israel.

2. Exodus 29:42, "...I will meet YOU, to speak there unto THEE."

The "You," referring to the children of Israel, is explained in the following verse, but "Thee" refers to Moses, who had the holy privilege of hearing the words of God directly (Leviticus 1:1).

3. 2 Samuel 7:23, "And what one nation in the earth is like THY people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for YOU great things and terrible, for THY land, before THY people, which THOU redeemedst to THEE from Egypt."

Here David prayed to God in the second person singular, but referred to the people of Israel as "You." What confusion could result if this important distinction were done away? It could be incorrectly thought that David was praying in part to the nation, or that the land belonged to the people and not to God.

4. Matthew 26:64, "Jesus saith unto him, THOU has said: nevertheless I say unto YOU, hereafter shall YE see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven."

"Thou" refers to the High Priest, but "You/Ye" include all those who were standing there in addition to the high priest.

5. Luke 5:24, "But that YE may know...I say unto THEE...take up THY couch, and go into THINE house."

"Ye" refers to the crowd, but "Thee/Thy/Thine" refer only to the man with palsy.

6. John 3:7, 11, "Marvel not that I said unto THEE, YE must be born again."

The message was spoken to the individual Nicodemus ("Thee"), but obviously has wider application to all those who desire to follow Christ ("Ye").

7. John 14:9, "Have I been so long time with YOU, and yet hast THOU not known me?"

The "You" refers to the crowd, but "Thou" is addressed specifically to only one man, Philip.

8. 1 Corinthians 8:9-12, "...this liberty of YOURS....If any man see THEE which hast knowledge...through THY knowledge...but when YE sin."

The plural forms "Yours/Ye" refer to the liberty and sin of all believers in Christ as a whole, but the singular forms "thee/thy" refer only to those individual believers that find themselves in this particular circumstance.
